

DAY TRIPS & TOURS DISCOVERING THE BEAUTY & HERITAGE OF LANCASHIRE & YORKSHIRE

Lancashire and Yorkshire - two counties whose names are inextricably linked with the history of England, whose, leading families once fought for the throne of the nation in the long and bloody Wars of the Roses. Our expertly guided tours will help you unlock all the secrets that this fascinating area has to offer — and what a wealth of delights there is to see! You may wish to visit Lancashire witch country, with its pretty villages, mysterious stories and the brooding, majestic presence of Pendle Hill. Or there's the Forest of Bowland, ancient hunting ground of monarchs, with glorious vistas and fascinating history at every turn. Then again, the Yorkshire Dales has it all — history, scenic beauty and the all pervading feeling that this really is God's own country! Whether you're interested in abbeys and castles, mill shops and markets, tracing your ancestors or simply seeing some of the best that Britain has to offer, let David Johns give you a day out to remember!
